

Narrative Writing Rubric

Excellent	Great	Good
I had an engaging (exciting) beginning. I used one of our leads. I told where, when, and who all at the beginning of my story and I used show not tell details. I introduced the problem at the beginning of my story and I used details. I told 3 or more ways the character(s) tried to solve the problem. I used a simile to describe at least one character. I have dialogue (my characters talk) and I used better words for said and I have "Quotation Marks." I have an ending that wraps up my story and tells a feeling, or surprises the reader, solves the problem or shows how the character changed through the events of the story.	I had an engaging (exciting) beginning. I told where, when, and who all at the beginning of my story and I used details. I introduced the problem at the beginning of my story and I used details. I told at least 3 ways the character(s) tried to solve the problem. I used a simile to describe at least one character. I have dialogue (my characters talk) and I used better words for said. I have an ending that wraps up my story and tells a feeling.	I had an engaging (exciting) beginning. I told where, when, and who all at the beginning of my story. I introduced the problem at the beginning of my story. I told at least 2 ways the character(s) tried to solve the problem. I have dialogue (my characters talk). I have an ending that wraps up my story.